Thank You!

Upon receipt of your request, we will confirm and submit the official response to your invitation for Wendy to speak. At the time of our response, we will also outline event specifics such as arrival time, product table, honorariums/fees, etc.

Wendy Ida is always excited about the opportunity to meet greet and connect with her audience members. That is why on the day of the event, she requests a speaker table so she can provide continuing educational materials.

For out of town events, travel and lodging arrangements must be made and the confirmation schedules must be sent prior to start date.

We look forward to making your event a fanatastic one!
